

WELCOME TO VOLT

Taking Your Employee Training to the Next Level

Through partnerships between OABA, NAARSO, and Learning Zen we welcome you to VOLT. The course content within this learning management training system has been curated by the OABA Education Committee to provide an in-depth educational and training experience for your seasonal employees to instill the common goals of safety and operational excellence. OABA is committed to developing and growing VOLT's diverse and bilingual course offerings including NAARSO accredited courses available to all VOLT users which can be taken for free, or for an additional fee, course completions will count toward your NAARSO credits and OSHA requirements.

Upon purchasing VOLT, the following documents are available to help you navigate and administer your VOLT program:

- LZ Portal Admin Guide - Manager's guide to adding users, assigning courses, reporting & more.
- LZ Student Role Guide - Please share this guide with your employees/users.
